PRICE TWO CENTS

THE RESULT SATISPACTORY TO ALL.

General Comments, Incidents, &c. Now that the intense excitement of the election over and men breathe freer, there is a stronges disposition manifested by both parties to look at the result squarely and be satisfied. The Republicans, while rejoicing over the victory, look upon it as being marred by the loss of New York State and New Jersey. The Democrats regard this as a practical gain—a strong encouragement to hold together more compactly for the next great fight. They say that whereas in 1864 they carried only one Northern State, in 1863 they have carried two—one is therefore so much clear gain. But they have another source of pleasure and of encouragement in the election of John T. Hoffman, Governor. They would be glad, to be sure, to have had his majority larger, but they promise to do fifty per cent. better two years hence, The congratulations of Mayor Hoffman by his friends yesterday were numerous and hearty. He was be-sieged on the steps of the City Hall in the afternoon by a host of his personal and political admirers, and was made to feel how warmly they loved him. Of course, not a man of them had the remotest idea of being rewarded by any fat office; their congratulations were purely disinterested and affectionate. Prosperity makes friends, but adversity tries them; it would perhaps be interesting to know how many of Gov. Seymour's "friends" congratulated him yesterday upon the result of the election A DELIGHTFUL DAY. As if to add to the general Jubilate Dec which rose from a million hearts in honor of the great victory and the assured return of peace, yesterday, which opened cool and frosty, turned out to be a balmy Indian summer day, and closed with indica-tions of rain. The furs and heavy overcoats which were shaken out, ready for use, a day or two before scemed to rejoice in unison over the result of Tues-day's election. Flags floated from the roofs of the public buildings, hotels, and many private houses all day. Fifth avenue and some of the aristocratiq streets presented a gay and lively appearance in this respect.

HOTEL SCENES. During the evening the city bar-rooms and lagerbier saloons were liberally patronized, and the me-lancholy ones sought, in the words of Tom Hood, "to keep their spirits up by pouring spirits down."

The feeling evinced in regard to the election at the Metropolitan, St. Nicholas, Astor, and other downtown hotels was hardly marked enough for comment. No enthusiasm was displayed, and a knot of political talkers was a rarity. Most of the hotel guests and loungers seemed to be perfectly contented with ar casy chair and solitude. But there were some unconquerable incorrigibles who lingered in the bar-rooms; and it was in these spirituous markets that the political talk which took place really occurred. Men would say, "Let's have a drink," and then, after approaching the bar and pouring out a dose of alcoholic poison, they would offer as a toast, " Here's to Grant." A few fect removed could be seen another party of drinkers swallowing flery, beverages in honor of Hoffman. And thus it went. If a man gloried over the election of Grant, he was matched with the election of Hoffman. The payment of bets and the giving up of opinions were posiponed to a future day. As a heavily-moustached individual in the St. Nicholas bar-room said : "We want the official figures, and will stand by nothing else." This sentiment prevailed, and nothing was certain in the minds of the hotel habitués except uncertainty.

The Fifth Avenue Hotel and the Republican headquarters were scenes of enthusiastic rejoicing. Men of every shade of political faith discussed the result, and all came to the conclusion that fraud was exten-sively practised. The Republicans charged the Democrats with getting in 25,000 illegal votes in this city, and the Democrats made a counter charge against their opponents in the interior of this State and else

GRISWOLD FOR GOVERNOR TET A few sanguine gentlemen were found at the Fifth Avenue Hotel who were willing to bet that the result of the investigation by the Court of Appeals, as threatened, into the frands practised at the polls in this city will set aside John T. Hoffman, and make John A. Griswold Governor of the State. The asserted upon good authority that Mayor Hoffman's election will be closely contested, evidence, it is said, being in the hands of the proper parties that at least Union League Club will hold a special meeting this evening, to consider the action proper to be taken in and the elections were discussed pro and con until

For the first time since the Police Commissioners have had the appointment of inspectors and canvasa-ers election, the men filling these positions refused to obey the instructions given them to make a prompt canvass of the votes cast in the various polling districts, and it is said that their action was dictated by the Democratic leaders, and agreed upon early in the day. The Police Commissioners re-mained at headquarters until 4 o'clock yesterday morning, making changes of disobedient canvass Judge Bosworth was called from his house at 11 o'clock for this purpose.

When the canvassers were engaged in turning out the Assembly ballots in the Fourth District, Thirteenth Ward, a crowd of roughs burst in, turned off the gas, and threw a large number of ballots among those on the table. The canvassers then refused to count them, and took them to the Thirteenth Precinct station house. The police report that the same crowd attempted a similar trick in the Seventh and Eighth Districts of the same ward, but were prevented by the efforts of the police. It is not, or cannot be denied that efforts were made to 'stuff" the ballot-boxes in several districts, but the
